CHEAP and CHIC

Fabulous honeymoons don't have to break the bank. We've found 10 of the most romantic hotels for under £150 a night

Jake's, JAMAICA One of the hippest hideaways in the Caribbean, if not the world, Jake's is famed for its bohemian feel and unbeatable value. Owned by the founder of Island Records, the hotel has 26 colourful cottages dotted along the beach, including the Octopussy honeymoon suites and Treasure Cot, a two-bedroom, two-bathroom villa that comes with its own housekeeper. Close to the small fishing village of Treasure Beach on the quiet south coast of Jamaica, Jake's exudes laid-back, barefoot chic and it's hard to believe that staying here is so affordable.

Spend your days around the salt-water pool, on the beach or being pampered in the spa, before heading to Dougie's Bar for a sunset rum punch before dinner. Heaven.

GO Caribtours (020 7751 0660; caribtours.co.uk) offers seven nights at Jake's from £1,035 per person staying in a one-bedroom Garden Room. Includes return flights with British Airways and transfers. Doubles at Jake's (islandoutpost.com) cost from £58.
