

Great getaways for the half term hols

2 of 13 © i-escape

TREASURE BEACH, JAMAICA

Jakes in Treasure Beach Jamaica is ideal for families looking for a spot of adventure. Activities on offer include river safaris, waterfall swimming, body boarding, fishing trips with local boat captains and hair-braiding. Children will love the kids club, whilst adults can relax and sink back in a hammock overlooking the gorgeous beach.

Price: A week's stay in a standard two bedroom cottage on an accommodation-only basis, 24 – 31 October 2014, is available from £1,050 per family of four (£263 per person). Flights excluded.

Offer exclusive to i-escape. For Jakes bookings click here.

UP NEXT

- A foodie's guide to New York
- Travel Inspiration

SIEMENS replay

Avail our Festive Firecracker Offer

iSensoric by Siemens: A washing machine that can think.

Know more >>

AdChoices

MORE IN TRAVEL

10 weird facts about the world's most famous landmarks

10 weird facts about the world's most famous landmarks

Getting the best out of Boracay

So you've heard about Boracay. You're not alone. In the past few years this small island in the Philippines has ridden a global wave of media attention to become one of the world's top island destinations.

Lonely Planet

World's Best Airports of 2014

The Ritz is the most popular hotel in London for multimillionaires: report

Where do the world's mega-rich travellers rest their heads when they stay in London?

Relaxnews

Airline launches seat sale for £99 flights from London to US

Transport

AFP-Relaxnews

CN Traveler readers name Disney world's best cruise line 2014

Disney, Crystal Cruises and Windstar have emerged the highest-rated cruise lines in CN Traveler magazine's latest edition of the Readers' Choice Awards.

Relaxnews